you.

---A time of silence for prayer---

Merciful God, we pray for:

all those hungry and seeking a meal,
all seniors who are struggling to remember yesterday,
all immigrants who worry about tomorrow,
all who are sick and dying.

all who are offering compassion to others, and all who are bringing hope and healing this day.

May we continue to listen for your voice O God as, by your

JANUARY 28—CHURCH COUNCIL LEADERSHIP RETREAT

All elected members of our Church Council will hopefully be present to be engaged in a fun, lively, and very worthwhile retreat today, January 28, from 1-4 p.m. in our Multiple Purpose Room. This will be a wonderful way to kick off the year! Persons may discover some new insights about themselves and how they best can work with others. This retreat is a follow up to the recommendation received during the 2017 Congregational Assessment Tool and Peace Circles. Carla Cain and Dianne McClanahan from the Des Moines Pastoral Counseling Center will again be our resource persons.

SPRC ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF A NEW SENIOR MINISTER

Bishop Laurie Haller and the Cabinet of the Iowa Annual Conference has appointed the Rev. Dr. Kerrin Kirkpatrick to serve as the new senior pastor at Ames FUMC starting on July 1, 2018.

Here is a brief bio: Kerrin Kirkpatrick graduated with a BS in Mechanical Engineering from Kansas State University in 1978. She worked for various companies as a Design/Development Engineer before discerning her call to ordained ministry. Her last engineering position was as Central Air Conditioning Engineering Manager at Amana Refrigeration. In 1993, she transitioned to pastoral ministry and began seminary at the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary, graduating in 1998 with a Masters of Divinity. Kerrin was ordained a Full Elder in 2000 and later returned to UDTS while serving churches to complete a Doctorate of Ministry in 2009. She has served churches in Buck Creek-Delhi, the Cedar Rapids area, Janesville (Iowa), and is currently Senior Pastor at Asbury UMC in Bettendorf (Quad Cities). Kerrin and her husband Carl have 4 grown children and four grandchildren. She is very excited to be at Ames First UMC, and is looking forward to a great ministry partnership with the congregation.

Circle of Faith will be hosting our very own, Carrie Copley, at our February 8th meeting at 7 p.m. at FUMC. We invite the congregation, our Brothers & Sisters in Christ, to please join us as Carrie shares her heart and soul about how she came about writing her book. Carrie believes that joy is a gift from God. A gift that all too often, we don't open. Carrie recently published, Finding Joy, Living an A+ Life in a C- World, A story about overcoming struggles and creating a life you love. Carrie will share her journey on how God has helped her discover joy in her own life and the lives of others through her coaching practice. Carrie's message is engaging and insightful and it may just challenge you on what is possible in your own life.

Mission Moment:

When you write a separate check to FUMC- Missions, the money is divided between lots of projects. Some of the money is donated directly to the missionaries that our congregation supports. Originally from Iowa, Doug Williams is a missionary serving in Argentina. He serves as a chaplain at a local college, pastors two churches, and coordinates the Volunteers in Mission project there. You can follow him on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/Argentina47/>.

To directly support his work, write a check to FUMC and put "Doug Williams missionary" in the memo line.

United Methodist Women

The United Methodist Women (UMW) welcomes all women of First United Methodist to become active participants in our purpose: To know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship and to expand concepts of Mission through participation in the global ministry of the church. In 2017 our unit of UMW held meetings in March, July and December, hosted Coffee hours in March; provided refreshments for Lenten studies in March and April; co-hosted the Easter Sunrise Breakfast in April, hosted UMW Sunday in July; provided ushers on the 3rd Sunday of each month, organized the Holiday Fair fundraiser in November, and assisted with the Church Thanksgiving dinner in November. Four small groups (Circles) within the unit met monthly for spiritual growth, educational programs, service activities, and fellowship. Our Quilters group met every Tuesday and the Pie Committee met as needed.

Through individual pledges and fundraising our unit contributed funds to support:

- ◆ 200 national and international mission projects sponsored by United Methodist Women.
- ◆ UM Camperships
- ◆ Appalachia Service Project
- ◆ Education Work Area
- ◆ Kitchen supplies
- ◆ The MICA home project
- ◆ Kids on a Mission
- ◆ Up with Puppets
- ◆ Free Dental clinic
- ◆ Butterfly Freedom House
- ◆ ACCESS

THIS YEAR'S LENTEN LUNCHES

Lenten lunches will be held on these FIVE Wednesdays at noon: February 21, 28, March 7, 21 and 28. We will not meet on the Wednesday of Spring break week which is March 14. Each week you are invited to bring a sack lunch to the Multi-Purpose Room. Drinks will be provided. We will enjoy our lunch at noon, share in a brief devotional moment at about 12:15p.m. and then hear from persons working in our community who are seeming to model what it means to walk in Christ's footsteps to help others overcome adversity and woes. Come and meet some of our city's "unsung heroes" among us. February 21, the speaker will be Carrie Moser from the Emergency Residence Project. February 28, our speakers will be Heather Withers and Diane Birt who help to coordinate AIRA of which our congregation is a part. March 7, the speaker will be Fredrick Killian telling us about his interest and work with prison ministry and caring for persons who are transitioning from prison back into society. March 21, we will hear from Jeanne Kresse who will speak about all the various programs of the United Way. Hopefully on March 28, our last lunch will feature Julie Saxton who serves as the Mental health Advocate for the City of Ames .

First United Methodist Church Affirmation of Welcome

As a community of the people of God, we are called to minister to all people of the world, knowing that the world is often an unloving place of alienation and brokenness. Christ calls us to reconciliation and wholeness, as we are challenged by the Gospel to be agents of healing within our society.

We stand in affirmation with the apostle Paul that in Christ "there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female." Christ has made us one. We acknowledge that this reconciliation encompasses all within the community of faith who exhibit any and all differences in the human condition including, but not limited to: race, gender, ethnicity, age, culture, physical and mental ability, educational level, economic status, personality, marital status, sexual orientation and gender identity in response to the often hostile social climate with respect to diversity within our society and the resulting feelings of alienation from the Church, we wish to make known our caring and concern. It is for this purpose that we affirm the following:

- all persons share the sacred worth that comes from being unique individuals created by God;
- all persons are welcome within the membership of this congregation upon making affirmation of faith; and that as members of this congregation, all persons are invited and encouraged to share in the sacramental and general life of this congregation.
